

The Daily Courant.

Wednesday, February 26. 1707.

From the Paris Gazette, dated Feb. 24.

Madrid, Feb. 8.

Besides the Rejoycings made in this City for the Queen's being with Child, all the Councils separately have return'd Thanks to God for it by publick Prayers which they have caus'd to be made in different Churches, assisting in a Body themselves at the Mass, the Te Deum, and the Sermons. The General of the Franciscans, has commanded all the Preachers of his Order, to exhort the People to continue to give Proofs of their Fidelity to the King their lawful Sovereign, as Defender of the Catholick Faith. Seville has signaliz'd its Zeal, by ringing of Bells, firing Artillery, and all sorts of Rejoycing: And the like has been done by all the Towns of the two Castiles and of Andaloufia. The King has made Don Pedro de Zuniga Sub-Lieutenant of his Life-Guards, in the Room of the Marquis de Villareal deceas'd. His Majesty has given a Regiment of Foot to the Marquis of Quintana. The Irish Regiment of Mahoni, consisting of above 500 chosen Men, and which was at Cartagena, is order'd to march to Cadix. They write from Almeria, that Esqign Don Blas de Lezama having but 40 Men, ventur'd to swim to and attack two Catalonian Pinks that lay out in the Road, and succeeded in so bold an Attempt, making himself Master of them without losing one Man. The King to reward his Bravery has made him a Captain. Major General Montenegro having Notice that some Parties of Portuguese were advancing towards Zamora, and that the Count of San Juan was abroad with 160 Horse, sent Captain Don Pedro Manuel d'Azevedo with 100 Horse to attack them. On his Approach the Portuguese retir'd, tho' the Party of Castilians advanc'd above 4 Leagues into the Territories of Portugal. The Enemy have dispers'd several Copies of Letters which they pretend to have intercepted, but which are easily discover'd to be forg'd, to infuse into the People a Distrust of the French, intimating among other Things that they design to ruine Spain, and then to abandon it: But this Artifice was too gross to pass upon the weakest People. The Archduke was at Valencia the 10th of last Month, and the Earl of Peterborow was arriv'd there from Italy.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated March 1.

Warsaw, Feb. 8. The 17th of last Month M. Oginski, Captain of Samogitia, came to Minsk with 3 Troops of Walachians and Horse; and having assisted on the Bench of the Court of Justice held there till the 24th, he proceeded for Lemberg. 'Tis advis'd from Grodno, that several Senators pass'd through there the 3d of this Month, on their Way to Lemberg likewise. Prince Wiesnowski had been desir'd by Letters from the Czar, to be present at the great Council at Lemberg, but he excus'd himself upon divers Allegations; yet declar'd he would conform himself to the Resolutions that should be taken in that Council. 'Tis advis'd from Wilna, that General Lewenhaupt having left the Command of the Swedish Troops to a Major General, is gone to Riga. Yesterday a Muscovite Collonel arriv'd in this City, with a Commission from General Rhen, to demand Contributions. M. Sapieha, Treasurer of Lithuania, is gone through this Place incognito to the Czar; 'tis not known on what Errand, but 'tis surmis'd to be about the Negotiation of a Treaty.

Cracow, Feb. 12. The Advices from Lithuania inform us, that a Cessation of Arms for 6 Weeks is agreed between the Poles and Lithuanians of King Augustus's Party, and those of the Party of King Stanislaus; during which Time the Swedes are to forbear all Hostilities, except against the Muscovites. The 5th of this Month, some of King Stanislaus's Polish Troops came to lodge in our Suburbs; but General Count Denhoff caus'd them to be dislodg'd the next Day by a Detachment of our Garrison, which kill'd 3 of their Men, and forc'd them to retire with Precipitation.

Lemberg, Feb. 2. A great Number of Senators are already arriv'd here, to assist at the great Council which is to be open'd the 7th of this Month; among the rest, the Primate of Poland, the Vice-chancellor of the Kingdom, the Bishop of Cujavia, the Palatine of Belz, Great General, and the Palatine of Lublin. Several more Senators are expected daily. Prince Dolhoruki is also to come hither on the Part of the Czar, who proposes to go and take a View of his Fleet assoon as he sees what Current Affairs will take in this Country, where he will leave Prince Menzikow to direct all things in his Absence. General Mazeppa is advancing towards the Frontiers of the Kingdom, with a numerous Army of Cossacks.

Warsaw, Feb. 12. The Muscovites that came to Praga the 8th of this Month, continue there still. Yesterday Morning General Rhen arriv'd in this City, and took up his Lodgings in the Castle, where he has been complimented by our Magistrates. He has proclaim'd by sound of Trumpet, that there shall be intire Freedom and Security of Commerce in this City, and for all those who shall bring Provisions or Merchandize into it. The Muscovite Generals Baur and Hencke, are expected to come into these Parts, with 20000 Foot and some Cannon. They write from Posenia, that the Party of King Stanislaus expect 6 or 7000 Swedes there from Saxony.

Leipsick, Feb. 23. The Queen our Electress set out from hence the 21st Instant for Torgau, where 'tis said the whole Court will reside for some Time. All the Ministers of King Augustus are gone from hence thither. Only Baron Imhoff remains here; and Yesterday he went to the King of Sweden's Quarters, where he had a Conference with Count Piper, and immediately after dispatch'd an Express to the King his Master.

Leipsick, Feb. 23. Count Schlieben, Envoy extraordinary from the King of Prussia, accompanied by M. Printz his said Majesty's Envoy and Privy Councillor, has complimented King Stanislaus on the Peace concluded and on his Accession to the Crown of Poland. The King of Sweden has visited the Quarters of some of his Regiments; with Design 'tis reported to send a Detachment of 6 or 7000 Men to upper Poland. Letters from Lemberg of the 8th Instant say the great Council had been open'd there, but was adjourn'd to the 11th. The Czar of Muscovy omits nothing to maintain a Party in Poland in the same Interest with his; while the Swedes continue in this Country.

From the Antwerp Courant, dated March 1.

Copenhagen, Feb. 15. The King has sent Admiral Paulsen to Hamburg, to list Seamen for his Service. 22 Ships of War are sitting out here, viz. 4 of 70, 8 of 60, and 10 of 40 Guns. RACHEL ORMSTON, late of Martin's-Lane, now Lives in the New-Buildings in Lawrence-street, near the Church in Great Chelsea, where she continues to Reduce all sorts of Crookedness by the Method invented by the Famous VAN HELMONT, which is the most Certain, Safe, and the Easiest Way that has yet been Practis'd or Known, being without those Rugged and painful Racks of Neck-Swings, Iron-Bodice, or other Presses that are commonly us'd in such Cases, which are sure always to give abundance of Pain and Uneasiness, without any Certainty of Cure; wherein if they Fail, as often they do than otherwise, (because they depend altogether upon Force, without any probable Reason) commonly leave the Patient either Decriped, or Consumptive, or both, at best Unhealthy. But this Method is altogether Easy, without any Force, and Consonant to the Gentle Rules of Nature, and the Tender Bodies of Growing Children; and for that Reason has all the Assurances of Success that Moral Probability can give, as the Practice has Demonstrated, inasmuch that some have scrupled to believe them to be the same Children after the Cure is perform'd.
